As the Pritzker Pavilion's signature shards of steel swallowed the mid-summer eve's sun last night (July 17), the budding Seattle five-piece howled an a cappella ode from their first EP Sun Giant...

Part of Music Without Borders, a free concert series sponsored by the city, time constraints would only allot the band a half hour, which is not such a bad thing for a crew enduring their very first tour.

Some of the infinite, mountain-quiet production was indeed naturally lost on tracks from their debut LP, but instead the Foxes improvised with jokes about each others' "weird" dreams...
